Tech Like a Pirate!

Don't just teach a lesson ... create an experience! Turn your classes into engagement-packed, "gotta tell my friends" learning attractions where technology is the catalyst, helping learning go from good to great!

This session is a techy spin off of Dave Burgess's bestselling book, "Teach Like a PIRATE." You'll learn about creative ways to assess student knowledge, games to boost the fun factor, virtual events to connect students to the world, and more! We'll have fun, play some games of our own, win prizes and practice new ideas hands-on. Are you ready to Tech Like a PIRATE?

Matt Miller is a teacher, blogger and presenter from West Central Indiana. He has infused technology and innovative teaching methods in his classes for more than 10 years. He is the author of the book Ditch That Textbook: Free Your Teaching and Revolutionize Your Classroom and writes at the Ditch That Textbook blog about using technology and creative ideas in teaching. He is a Google Certified Innovator, Bammy!

Top to Watch in 2016, and winner of the WTHI-TV Golden Apple Award. Onalytica named him one of the top 10 influencers in educational technology and elearning worldwide.

After trying to do the traditional "teach by the textbook" for a few years, he launched into a textbook-less path where learning activities were often custom-produced for his students as well as infused with technology. He likes the results a lot, and his students do, too.

Matt has presented to thousands of teachers at dozens of workshops on a number of topics related to educational technology, world language instruction and more. He combines a conversational, engaging speaking style with loads of resources, leaving teachers equipped and inspired to move forward.
