

Creating Trauma Sensitive Classrooms

Presented by Kevin Dill

This training explores how Adverse Childhood Experiences impact learning, increase maladaptive behavior and impair social-emotional skill development in students. Attendees will learn strategies to develop a trauma sensitive classroom that will move students from working in the limbic system part of their brain to the pre-frontal cortex part of their brain, increase attention, reduce irresponsible behavior, help student regulate and improve overall competencies.

Date: February 6, 2019

Time: 9:00-3:00 EST (lunch on your own)

Location: Wabash Valley Education Center
3061 Benton Street
West Lafayette, IN 47906

Cost: $125/member
$250/non-member

Register Now

Register by Clicking Here or visit www.esc5.k12.in.us

Kevin Dill, Ed. S. is the President and CEO of S.N.T. Ed. Consulting, LLC. During his tenure in education, he has served as a Special Education Teacher, Principal, and Director of Special Education. Recognized as a nationally renowned educator and accomplished presenter, Kevin offers practical and evidenced based instructional solutions to help all students learn. Serving as principal consultant for several school districts and corporations throughout the United States, Kevin is known for his innovative strategies designed to eliminate chronic disruptive behavior and improve student performance in the classroom. He is a specialist in the area of student behavior with over 20 years of teaching the most chronically disruptive students. Kevin has authored several education resources including the Most Powerful Solutions to Eliminating Chronic Disruptive Behavior in Your Classroom.

WABASH VALLEY
W V E C
EDUCATION CENTER

Wabash Valley Education Center
3061 Benton Street
West Lafayette, IN 47906
765-463-1589
Web: www.esc5.k12.in.us
Email: kim@esc5.k12.in.us