

U of L Special Education Conference: Innovative Research to Practical Application

Continuing Education Units will be available. Applications pending. Information will be posted online as it becomes available

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE.
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
& HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE.
KENTUCKY AUTISM
TRAINING CENTER

University of Louisville
College of Education and Human Development
Department of Special Education
Kentucky Autism Training Center

Host

U of L Special Education Conference: Innovative Research to Practical Application

June 18 & 19, 2013
University of Louisville
Shelby Campus
9001 Shelbyville Rd.
Louisville, KY 40222

<http://louisville.edu/delphi/>

Keynote Speakers

Tuesday June 18th

Kathleen Lynn Lane

Comprehensive, Integrated, Three-Tiered (CI3T) Models of Prevention: The Importance of Systematic Behavior Screenings

Wednesday, June 19th

Erik Carter

Promoting Rigor, Relevance, and Relationships: What We Know About Helping Youth with Autism to Flourish During and After High School

Sessions will address: *Common Core Standards, *Behavior Management, *Communication Instruction, *Self-Determination, *Transition, *Parent-Professional Collaboration, *Social Skills, *Health Issues and many more . . .

This conference is designed to provide educators, service providers, students and families from across the Commonwealth with the latest research-based tools for supporting students with disabilities across the lifespan.

Registration now open

https://reg.abcsignup.com/view/view_month.aspx?as=47&wp=116&aid=KATC

Early Bird Registration fee through 6/4/2013

Professionals: $125

Family Members, Full Time Students, Instructional Assistants, Individuals with disabilities: $50

Register June 5-16, 2013

Professionals: $175

Family Members, Full Time Students, Instructional Assistants, Individuals with disabilities: $100

On-site registration: June 18-19, 2013

Professionals: $225

Family Members, Full Time Students, Instructional Assistants, Individuals with disabilities: $150

Exhibitor booths are available

Questions??

Contact:

katc@louisville.edu

Special Education Dept.

Facebook page

KY Autism Training Center

Facebook Page