

Eugene A. Pantera, Jr., DDS, MS, is former Director of the Advanced Program in Endodontics and Director of the Division of Endodontics Dental Education and is now emeritus faculty at the University at Buffalo. In addition to peer reviewed publications and presentations, he has presented seminars nationally and internationally and has lectured to all levels of dental and graduate students on varied endodontic topics

A Fellow of the American College of Dentists, the Academy of General Dentistry, the International College of Dentists and an honorary member of the Academia Mexicana de Endodoncia, Dr. Pantera practiced general dentistry for quite a few years before climbing the ivory tower and appreciates the problems faced “in the front lines.”
